

Therma-Tru launches Classic-Craft® American Style Collection™ Shaker-style doors and sidelites

MAUMEE, OHIO – The new Classic-Craft American Style Collection Shaker-style doors from Therma-Tru transcend simplicity and sophistication to provide premium customization and style.

Featuring graceful lines and adaptable designs, these doors bring the simplicity of handcrafted beauty to any home. The new designs follow authentic Shaker style with traditional square sticking.

“Our Shaker-style doors reflect homeowner demand for clean, simple designs, and also complement a wide variety of architectural styles,” said Donna Contat, director of product management at Therma-Tru® Corp.

Offered in a variety of options, the Classic-Craft American Style Collection Shaker-style doors expand and broaden the appeal of Therma-Tru’s existing Shaker-style product offering. The line includes on-trend designs both with and without glass, and will be available in 6’8” and 8’0” heights.

The new full-lite EnLiten™ flush-glazed doors and sidelites offer a simple, yet sophisticated look that can be customized with premium flat profile divider bars to complement a variety of architectural elements. These doors are ideal for front entry and patio applications.

The solid-panel opaque doors extend the true Shaker-style look throughout the home. Alternatively, for a customized front entry, they can be paired with full-lite sidelites with decorative, privacy and textured, or clear Low-E glass to create a beautiful front entry that embraces natural light.

The Classic-Craft American Style Collection Shaker-style doors can be customized to match a variety of architectural home styles, from Arts and Crafts to Contemporary and Modern. The doors provide a balanced and inviting look to help homeowners create an entryway that is welcoming, casual and authentic.
