

Welcome Home Beauty, Privacy and Function with Therma-Tru® Glass Designs

MAUMEE, OHIO – With an increased desire from homeowners to allow more natural light into the home, glass is becoming the new luxury. Homeowners are looking for customization and privacy when purchasing glass, which is why each of our privacy and textured glass designs and internal blinds glass size options allow consumers to express their style without compromising their sense of privacy. With multiple style and privacy options, there is a glass configuration out there for everyone.

New for 2017 is a 47" internal blinds glass size option for doors and sidelites, which takes a more functional approach to privacy. Homeowners can choose their desired level of privacy along with the level of light allowed in by adjusting the single hand operator to be totally closed for maximum privacy, or open for natural light flow. The cordless blinds enclosed between two panes of tempered glass remain dust-free and are a great kid- and pet-friendly option.

On the other hand, privacy and textured glass options provide homeowners with an artistic approach to privacy. Therma-Tru doors and sidelites, including flush-glazed styles, can be customized with a beautiful privacy and textured glass design that allows for individual design expression that fits within the homeowner's style. All five privacy and textured glass designs have opacity ratings between 8-10, providing high levels of privacy.
